

O Sensei

Gichin Funakoshi Sensei, is widely considered to be the father of modern day karate due to him introducing the Okinawan art to Japan. Funakoshi was born the son of a samurai in 1868 , in Naha City, Okinawa. At the age of 11 he began to study with the two great masters of the time, Azato and Itosu. He became so proficient that he took up all the major styles of Karate in Okinawa. In 1913 he became chairman of the Okinawan Shobu kai and in 1916 gave a demonstration to the Butokuden in Kyoto, Japan. In 1922 he moved to Japan and eventually merged all the Okinawan Styles into Karate-do, this method became known as Shotokan, literally meaning the clan of the house of Shoto, Shoto being Master Funakoshi's pen name for his poetry he wrote. He passes away at the age of 88 in 1957.
